Dear Parishioners,

As we light the second candle on the Advent wreath, we are reminded that this is a season of preparation—a time to ready our hearts to welcome Christ anew. Advent invites us to slow down and focus on the true meaning of this season: the coming of our Savior. Amidst the busyness of holiday planning and shopping, let's not forget to make room in our hearts for Jesus.

One essential way to prepare spiritually is by seeking out the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Confession is a powerful gift, a moment of grace that helps us turn away from sin and be renewed in God's mercy. If it has been a while, do not fear—this is the perfect season to return to the Lord. Check the bulletin or website for confession times, and consider making it a family event, especially for children who have already received their First Reconciliation.

Another way to prepare is by making an Advent plan to reinforce daily prayer. This can be as simple as lighting the Advent wreath at dinner, praying a decade of the Rosary, or setting aside time to read Scripture together as a family. Parents with young children may find the Holy Heroes Advent Adventure an especially helpful resource. These daily emails contain videos, crafts, and prayers designed to engage children in the spirit of the season. It's a wonderful way to introduce the richness of Advent traditions in a fun and faith-filled way.

The Immaculate Conception

This year, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception on Monday, December 9th, as the usual date (December 8th) falls on the Second Sunday of Advent. Despite the transfer, this day remains a holy day of obligation, and we are called to honor Mary, conceived without sin, as the perfect vessel for the birth of our Savior. Reflecting on Mary's purity and trust in God can inspire us to live our Advent journey with openness to His will.

Plan ahead to attend Mass on this day as a family, not only to fulfill the obligation but to deepen your devotion to Mary and seek her intercession during this holy season. Check this page for the schedule for Mass times.

As we continue through this beautiful season, may the light of Christ guide your steps and fill your hearts with peace. Let us all commit to making this Advent a time of spiritual renewal, preparing not just for a day, but for the encounter with Emmanuel—God with us.

God bless,
Fr. Miguel

ONCE UPON A TIME...

Every year the 3rd graders choose their favorite fairy tales to practice and perform. They decide on their stories, choose the version they like, and practice at home until they feel ready. This activity sparks creativity, captivates younger students, and builds good fluency skills.

Wilson as the Big Bad Wolf from The Three Little Pigs.

Gianna reads The Three Billy Goats Gruff

Walter as the Big Bad Wolf from Little Red Ridinghood.

Harry as Hansel from Hansel and Gretel.

Kensi reads Goldilocks and the Three Bears

Brooks as the Red Hen from The Little Red Hen.

James as the giant from Jack and the Beanstalk.

Our 3rd graders also became published authors in November. Their Thanksgiving stories were published in Star News. If you can get your hands on a copy - be sure to give it a read. They're charming, funny, and sweet!

THE LOVE OF READING

We opened our school library up for the long Thanksgiving break. Students enjoyed browsing the shelves and finding treasures to take home. Kindergarten shared their library time with 4th grade. The 4th graders were big helpers and enthusiastic readers!

Kaia (K) and Madden (4) learn how to catch a mermaid!

Shelby (K) sits on our cozy carpet space in the library.

Clayton (4) and Cece (K) enjoy a new book.

Abby (K) giggles at a silly story with friends.

Grace (K), Carmen (4), and Kate (4) share a story together.

Cookie Decorating with 1st Grade!

Nothing helps with those pre-break wiggles better than frosting cookies! Ms. Emily treated her students to some tasty activities before Thanksgiving break!
