28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves,
"Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said,
"For human beings it is impossible, but not for God.
All things are possible for God." - Mk 10:26-27

Dear Parishioners,

I'm excited to share that starting this Tuesday, St. Barnabas Church in Mazomanie will host a new weekday Mass at 5:30 PM, followed by confessions and adoration from 6 to 7 PM. This addition gives everyone three evening opportunities each week for confession: Tuesdays at St. Barnabas, Wednesdays at St. Aloysius, and Thursdays at St. Norbert. I encourage you to take advantage of these special times for reconciliation and to deepen your walk with God.

This is also a wonderful opportunity to invite someone who may be curious about the Catholic Faith or even considering becoming Catholic. They are welcome to join us and experience our faith community. Registration is available on our website.

Next week, we will hold a special collection for those impacted by the recent hurricanes in North Carolina, Tennessee, and Florida. In addition, we are organizing a semi-truck filled with basic necessities to be sent to the affected areas. Your support can make a meaningful difference to those facing hardship. Please consider contributing generously.

Catholic Charities Diocese of Madison is seeking applications for the Mary Jeanne Kennedy Anderson Youth Faith in Action Scholarship, recognizing two high school seniors who have demonstrated a commitment to community service. The $2,000 awards will be presented by Bishop Donald Hying and Catholic Charities Executive Director Shawn Carney on February 9, 2025, at Frassati Fest in Wisconsin Dells. Eligible applicants must reside in the Diocese of Madison, be a current member of a parish within the Diocese, be a high school senior for the 2024-2025 school year with a GPA of at least 3.0, and plan to attend a college, university, or technical school in 2025. Applications are available online at <http://catholiccharitiesofmadison.org/scholarship>, with a deadline of December 13, 2024. For questions, please contact Sandra Lampman at 608-826-8096 or via email at scholarship@ccmadison.org.

I will soon send out a Flocknote with a sign-up form for those interested in volunteering in various ministries within our parish. This is especially valuable for our young parishioners, as we will track their involvement and recognize their service at high school graduation. Keep an eye out for the Flocknote, and thank you for your generous heart in serving our community!

In Christ's love,
Fr. Miguel

Always and everywhere faithful

"Saint Aloysius is a Catholic education community whose ministry provides opportunity for all students to develop their spiritual life and academic potential."

WEEKLY VIRTUES: BUILDING GOOD HABITS

These last two weeks, our students focused on the virtues of courtesy and meeekness.

The 5th graders showed meekness when they put kindergarten and 1st grade students first during a trip to Jaycee Park. In the pictures to the left and below, the older students allowed the younger kids to choose what to play!

SURROUNDED BY HISTORY!

The fourth graders watched history come alive while on their Ice Age Trail Field Trip. They visited Indian Lake, including the shrine of Saint Mary of the Oaks, the Matz Farmstead Ruins, the Old Halfway Prairie School, and other historical markers.

The fourth graders learned every place, every object, has a story to tell. The field trip showed them how important it is to protect these historical markers. They are fascinating ways to explore and learn from the past.

Kate Kruchten and Clayton Haselwander enjoy custard after their eventful (fun!) day of hiking!

A trip about this historic area wouldn't be complete without stopping by the first Culvers restaurant for a delicious treat!

WHILE MRS. KREJCHIK'S AWAY...

MS. MAYRA GETS TO PLAY!

All our students received a sweet treat last Wednesday. Miss Mayra was our substitute for art class - bringing each child a cookie to frost! The kindergartners enjoyed choosing the frosting color, the type of sprinkles, and, of course, the taste testing!

Nadia Ziegler, Britta Kendall, and Anthony Campos Briones (above) use teamwork to bring materials to their shelter site.

Mae Sleeper, Hildie Rossing, and Amelia Eckstein (above) work hard to build up their hut into a sturdy shelter.

THEY'RE HOOKED ON FISHING!

James Arduini (below) shows off his catch of the day for the camera!

The second graders had the opportunity to learn from nature during this district-wide field trip. They enjoyed a whole day outside at Tuckaway Campground in North Freedom, Wisconsin. They fished, built shelters in the woods, and learned about making safe choices while out in nature. This is a tradition we were all excited to see return. A huge thank you to all the volunteers who came together and made this day both educational and extremely fun!

STAINED GLASS CLASS

The middle school students have a special class this trimester - stained glass! With the guidance of local artist, Anna Verbsky Sagami, the students are designing, prepping, and piecing together a work of art. Each student is working at an independent pace, learning how to sketch, cut, foil, and solder their design. This class will continue through November, and their finished products will be on display at the Santa Breakfast. Take a peek at how things started!

THE PRIESTS ARE BACK!

By Reegan Ederer (5)

You might have seen a lot of priests coming over to the school. They have been teaching religion class! We 5th graders have been learning about the angels and the gifts God gives to all of us. We also learned that free will is the ability to choose what is GOOD (not BAD). It is the freedom God gave us, the freedom to do good and love Him.

Fr. Faustino captivates our younger students with his interesting stories! He visits in PreK and Kindergarten once a week!

COURTESY IN ACTION!

This time we are recognizing Dave and how he is courteous. Courteous means being polite, listening to others, and helping them with the thing that they need. Dave is the school janitor and if anything he is known for his courtesy! Dave does everything at our school and he helps us to grow in our faith. He is funny and he will do what he can to be helpful to anyone who needs it. And we all love him for that!
